

FIRST ARRIVAL — This is the first of four new ambulances owned by the Mansfield Ambulance Service which will provide emergency service for most of the county until Aug. 15. Albert Keck, Zanesville manager of the service, is shown with the vehicle delivered yesterday.