

Ambulance
Membership
Programs
Make Sparks

December 1990 Volume 15 Number 12 $3.00

jems
JOURNAL OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES

Treating the Geriatric Population

Interpreting Hemiblock

IGNITING CHANGE

In Fire Service EMS

CONTENTS

FEATURES

23 Cardiology Practicum: Look Out for Hemiblock

BY MIKE TAIGMAN AND SYD CANAN

Paramedics who do not routinely evaluate cardiac patients for hemiblock risk making potentially devastating mistakes in treatment. Although absorbing this information may seem challenging, its benefits are well worth the effort.

28 Revisiting FireMed: Ambulance Membership Programs

BY DENNIS MURPHY

Launched in Oregon in 1986, FireMed programs are springing up in other states, offering unique benefits to fire departments and patients alike. Learn the keys to their success.

38 A Fire Chief's Perspective on FireMed

BY DONALD L. HERSCHEL

40 Spotting Hot Trends in Fire Service EMS

BY JAMES O. PAGE, JD

With fire prevention and public education reducing the need for fire-fighting capabilities, it makes sense for fire services to aggressively pursue patient-care opportunities. Read about this and other hot trends likely to ignite change in fire service EMS.

43 State and Federal Fire Service EMS Associations

45 Men and Their Machines

BY JAMES O. PAGE, JD

56 Caring For the Elderly: A New Generation of Patients (CEU)

BY TIM BUTCHER, RN, MPH, REMT-P

As the geriatric population grows, so must our knowledge of the physiological and psychological needs unique to the elderly. This article focuses on common scenarios involving geriatric patients, such as drug-related emergencies, thermoregulatory dysfunction and mental syndromes.

71 Seeing Eye to Eye

BY ARTHUR J. RUBENS, PhD, EMT-P

COLUMNS

5 Guest Comment

BY BILL WAGNER

Getting a Jump on Automatic Defibrillation

6 The Publisher's Page

BY JIM PAGE

Fitting Form to Function

20 Current Research

BY BRUCE GOLDFARB

75 The Legal File

BY CAROL J. SHANABERGER, JD

Better Safe Than Sued: Avoiding Student Injury Claims

88 Inroads

BY DOUG WOLFBURG

91 QA Forum

BY THOM DICK

The "D" Word: Discipline That's Rewarding

DEPARTMENTS

13 Letters

17 Inside EMS

78 Classifieds

84 Calendar

93 Advertiser Directory

94 The Last Word

Special Insert:

1991 Calendar